our history

Swenson Granite is the embodiment of the American dream. Founded by Swedish immigrant John Swenson in 1883, our New England roots run deep. We remain a family-owned business. Four generations of our family have served the changing needs of our customers.

Over the past 130 years, many competitors have come and gone. We credit our company's longevity and growth to our steadfast commitment to our core principles: offering quality stone, quality craftsmanship and providing excellent customer service.

While our commitment to these principles will never waiver, our methods of quarrying and fabricating stone are ever evolving, combining the latest technologies with time-honored workmanship to provide you with affordability and value with every purchase.

edging & curbing

The physical comparison leaves no doubt that granite is the best edging and curbing material available today. Granite curbing offers low maintenance costs, lasts longer than precast and adds the advantage of being beautiful as well as durable.

THE FINISHING TOUCH. Granite is the ideal material for creating distinctive and lasting borders around driveways, lawns, flower beds and patios. Stone edging reduces maintenance by keeping lawns and flower beds from overtaking other areas; granite driveway curbing provides a hard, protective edge that extends the life of your asphalt.

Whether you require a few feet of edging for your flower garden or a few hundred feet to edge your driveway, Swenson Granite Works has what you need in stock.

benches

A granite bench is an ideal way to heighten the enjoyment of your property. Durable and weather resistant, our benches need not be covered or stored.

Place one in a sunny spot or a shady nook and this bench will soon become your favorite spot for tranquil repose. Our extensive selection of styles, finishes and colors assures you'll find a bench that will complement your yard perfectly.

Suitable for private and commercial applications, our benches are the ideal choice for stylish, hassle-free seating.

And yet a bench can be so much more. The beauty and permanence of our granite benches provide an ideal medium for remembrance. Speak to one of our helpful staff today about creating a memorial bench for your loved one. We will work with you to add an appropriate and respectful touch to your memorial garden or walkway.

A granite memorial bench is a fitting addition to a playground, park or town common to honor the heroes among us. Please speak to a staff member about how we can help your service organization, club or business.

ornamental

It's the little touches that make a house a home. We know the same holds true for your yard.

Let us help you find the perfect accent for your yard or garden.

A metal armillary sphere or bronze sundial adorning one of our timeless granite bases adds a hint of sophistication and antiquity.

A well-placed granite bird bath adds charm and becomes a focal point, offering many hours of delight as you watch the birds that flock to its cooling waters.

Let our wide selection of styles and colors in all of our bird baths, sundials and armillary bases fire your imagination, transforming your yard into your perfect oasis.

coping & cap

Natural stone has been used through the ages for constructing walls and fortifying buildings, due to its beauty and strength. Your granite or natural stone wall is a durable addition that increases the value of your property. Enhance and protect your investment with granite or stone capping from Swenson Granite Works.

Available in a variety of stock and custom materials, finishes and colors, granite and stone caps will add that distinctive finishing touch to your walls and stone pillars, while shedding water to preserve mortar joints, and reducing maintenance costs.

Planning that dream pool or custom spa? Why not top it off with the classic look of granite or stone coping? With our broad selection of materials and edge treatments, we'll use state of the art techniques as well as old world craftsmanship to make your vision a reality.
